

NAME

Senior Counsel with Boeing Defense, Space & Security, General Counsel to Insitu
Juris Doctor, University of Oregon School of Law
B.A. in International Relations, Monterey Institute of International Studies

Adam Brake is Senior Counsel with Boeing Defense, Space & Security and serves as General Counsel to Insitu. In this role, he is responsible for legal advice to the Chief Executive Officer and the executive staff.

Prior to joining The Boeing Company, Adam had a distinguished career in public service including service with the legislative branch of the federal government and the U.S. Army. He served as Counsel for National Security Affairs for a United States Senator where he represented the Senator on all matters within the jurisdiction of the Senate Armed Services Committee. Previously, he served as legislative staff in the House of Representatives.

A 27 year veteran of the United States Army Special Operations Command, Adam served in Operation Enduring Freedom as a Special Forces Engineer Sergeant and Intelligence Sergeant. After commissioning as a Judge Advocate, he served in a range of positions providing legal counsel to Coalition and Joint Special Operations Forces at tactical through strategic levels of command. His service included multiple deployments to Afghanistan, Iraq and other contingency operation locations.

Adam received a B.A. in International Relations, summa cum laude, from the Monterey Institute of International Studies. He received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of Oregon School of Law. He is a graduate of numerous military professional development schools and special skill qualification courses. He is also a graduate of the Boeing Executive Program 1.