

ERICK WEGERER

Chief Information Officer

Executive M.B.A. Washington State University (in progress)

Bachelor of Business in Management Information Systems, Western Illinois University

Erick Wegerer is the Chief Information Officer and leads the Information Technology (IT), Information Security (InfoSec) and Management Information Systems (MIS) teams at Insitu, supporting both internal and external customers. Erick started his Insitu career as the Information Services Manager in 2017, where he was responsible for assembling Insitu's Business Intelligence team and managing an Agile team of 20 developers and analysts.

Prior to Insitu, Erick came from GBW Railcar Services, where he served as the Vice President of Business & Information Technology. While at GBW Railcar Services, he was responsible for the integration of 40 repair locations, two corporate offices, and 30 IT professionals within a six month period. He also helped align corporate IT strategy with key business objectives, including infrastructure, ERP, Data Warehousing, Quality, and Safety.

Erick has also been heavily engaged in the software development business and held multiple roles in other software and manufacturing firms. At the start of his career, Erick worked various software implementation and consulting roles, helping some of the largest construction companies in the world modernize their business software systems.

Erick graduated from Western Illinois University with a Bachelor of Business in Management Information Systems and holds an Executive M.B.A. from Washington State University's Carson College of Business. He holds CISM (Certified Information Security Manager) and ITIL (IT Information Library) Foundations, and PMP (Project Management Professional) certificates.

As a graduate of the Leadership Clark County (LCC) program, Erick helped start the Give More 24 program, which is an annual day of giving and last year raised $2.98 million dollars to help the local community. LCC is a nonprofit, nonpartisan civic leadership program whose mission is to develop effective community leaders to serve Clark County, WA.
